INSPECTOR CROSS MAY HAVE TO FACE A POLICE TRIAL ON CHARGES OF NEGLIGENCE.

Commissioner Partridge Will Not Deny that He Contemplates Such Action—Churchill, It Is Likely, Will Not Be Disturbed Again.

SVENGALI CROSS, OR WHY DID THE OLD MAN LEAVE BROOKLYN?

Real Estate Bill Devery—Keep him asleep, Adam.

Police Commissioner Partridge declared positively this morning that Sgt. Churchill would certainly be tried on charges of neglect of duty, which are to be preferred by Inspector Cross.

"The evidence obtained by the inspector in his raids the other night," said the Commissioner, "makes it necessary to try Sgt. Churchill. I shall conduct the examination myself after I have made a thorough investigation."

"Will charges also be preferred against Inspector Cross?" he was asked.

"I don't know. It is possible—in fact, the whole Police Department may be put upon charges at any time."

Speaking about the District Attorney Col. Partridge said:

"I think Mr. Jerome was misunderstood when he was thought to have said that he would not have Sgt. Churchill tried. I suppose he meant that he personally would not prefer charges. Inspector Cross is compelled to make the charges."

Explanations were made and the Rev. Father Maher tied the knot. Then the wedding party returned to the church.

The wedding was in a room at the Hotel Hamilton and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Maher. The bride and groom were surrounded by a large number of guests.

The bride, whose parents live at No. 27 Washington street, is to live in her husband's home. She says she was not at all surprised that she was to be married and that she was also the bride.

When she returned, a policeman at the door told her no one could enter the house.

Miss Margaret Curry, the bride-elect, was escorted to Mr. Mary's Church at a wedding. The church was filled with guests and the ceremony was a grand one.

Miss Mellican presented the dismissal of the guests. She borrowed a ladder to reach the back fence and lifted the ladder to a window. Gallagher and his mother passed down the ladder and through the window.

The bride and groom were in a hurry to leave. The bride was in a hurry to leave and the groom was in a hurry to leave.

"A PUDDING HAS TWO SIDES."

It has an inside and an outside!
The inside of a pudding, like the inside of a shoe, is the most serious part of it.

If "the proof of the pudding is in the eating" the proof of a shoe is in the wearing of it.

It is the wear of $3.50 Regals, which proves the materials put into them equal to their $6.00 appearance.

"Tannery to Consumer" system helps the inside of Regals, even more than the outside.
